3. Where it is needed in the public interest, such as for equal opportunities monitoring.

Less commonly, we may process this type of information where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

DATA SHARING

We may have to share your data with third parties, including third-party service providers. We require third parties to respect the security of your data and to treat it in accordance with the law.

Why might you share my personal information with third parties?

We will share your personal information with third parties where required by law, where it is necessary to administer the services we are providing to you or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so.

Which third-party service providers process my personal information?

Our school uses a number of data processors to assist us in delivering an interactive and engaging teaching solution. This includes interactive educational games and apps which our pupils access, with consent of their parent, guardian or carer.

We may engage with local service providers such as videographers, photographers, musicians, librarians, the fire service or police force to deliver services to our pupils and to document school activities.

We also use other technological solutions to help us prepare our classroom planning activities, to report on our pupil's health and wellbeing in addition to providing our annual and statistical returns to the Local Education Authority. The following is a list of providers we may use to facilitate these activities which include interactive games and learning resources for our pupils to use and also management software solutions that we use to facilitate our education delivery programmes:

How secure is my information with third-party service providers and other data controllers?

All our third-party service providers and other data controllers are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal information in line with the Data Protection Legislation. Our third party suppliers and data controllers will provide you with information on how they use your personal information.

We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

When might you share my personal information with other data controllers?

We will share your personal information with other data controllers as part of our regular reporting activities on education delivery, in order to report any safeguarding issues to the local safeguarding board, for additional support and delivery of our core activities as an educational establishment, for system maintenance support and hosting of data.

We may share anonymised personal data on an annual basis regarding our pupils educational attainment with Welsh Government through their online portal for research and statistical analysis performed in order to improve education provided to pupils in Wales.

We also use the Welsh Government online schools portal, Ffynon to access DEWI, S2S and also Hwb a digital learning resource for Wales. We also use CAPITA educational systems such as SIMS and MyConcern.

We may share statistical information with the National Foundation for Educational Research for statistical analysis and research purposes.

We will also share personal data with the Central South Consortium Joint Education Service with statistical information relating to your participation in school activities, we will also access their online materials through Cronfa; we will share information with Careers Wales to assist you with your career choices and pathways. We may also be required to submit a referral to or liaise with the Multi Agency Safeguarding Hub which is made up of professionals from the Local Authority, South Wales Police Force, Cwm Taf Health Board and other charities and organisations for the purposes of protecting and promoting the safety and welfare of our pupils, parents and staff.

What about other third parties?

We may also need to share your personal information with a regulator or to otherwise comply with the law. This may include the National Health Service, the Police, the Ombudsman, the Information Commissioners Office or other Government Department and appointed Regulatory Commissioner's.

Transferring information outside the EU

We will not transfer your data to any countries outside of the EU. If we do we will inform you as soon as possible. If we do, you can expect a similar degree of protection in respect of your personal information.

DATA RETENTION

How long will you use my information for?

We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

Details of retention periods for different aspects of your personal information are available in our Records Management policy which is available from the Councils Information Governance Team who can be contacted on the details provided at the top of this notice. To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal information so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use such information without further notice to you. Once you are no longer receiving services from the [SCHOOL] we will retain and securely destroy your personal information in accordance with our Records Management Policy including any applicable laws and regulations.

RIGHTS OF ACCESS, CORRECTION, ERASURE, AND RESTRICTION

Your duty to inform us of changes

It is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal information changes during your working relationship with us.

Your rights in connection with personal information

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal information (commonly known as a “data subject access request”). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal information that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal information where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal information about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request the transfer of your personal information to another party.

If you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please contact the responsible manager detailed at the top of this notice in writing.

No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances. If you would like to submit a request for your information please contact our Data Protection Officer.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

RIGHT TO WITHDRAW CONSENT

In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact the responsible manager detailed at the top of this notice. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

DATA SECURITY

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal information on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

MAKING A COMPLAINT

We have appointed a data protection officer to oversee compliance with this privacy notice. If you have any questions about this privacy notice or how we handle your personal information, please contact the Data Protection Officer using the contact details provided at the top of this privacy notice. You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues:
